What is Truth Trackers?

Truth Trackers is a children's program that systematically and purposefully discipless children. We believe children can and need to learn the basics of the Christian faith. We accomplish this by helping the children grasp the truths of God on their level. This is accomplished with weekly memory verses, daily devotions, weekly lessons (on the verses learned for that week), and fun activities. In Truth Trackers, children enjoy learning and applying Biblical truth.

Our Goals

1. To disciple children in the basics of the Christian faith.
2. To help children memorize the Bible and daily spend time with God.
3. To incorporate the family into activities and Bible memory.

Age Groups

Scripture Spies (1st-3rd grade) and Faith Force (4th-6th grade) are two of the three divisions of Truth Trackers in which children experience the excitement of learning the fundamental truths of the Bible. Scripture Spies cover eighteen doctrines (below) every three years through scripture memory, devotions, and Bible lessons. When those children advance to Faith Force, they learn those same doctrines again through review with new and additional material. All the verses, devotions, and lessons are focused to disciple the children in that week's topic.

Tiny Trackers (3 to 5 years old) is the third division in the Truth Trackers program. They learn simple truths through Bible memory, Bible lessons, and family devotions. Tiny Trackers teaches these simple truths by picking out a special word found in the memory verse and teaching the children what that word means. For example, on one week the children might learn the word "obey", memorizing part of Ephesians 6:1. They also would hear a Bible lesson that teaches what "obey" means, and they would listen to an illustrated lesson on how they can "obey."

Awards

Children receive award tags for diligently memorizing God's Word and doing their devotions. The children can display their award tags on a key chain and attach it to their Bible case, bag, or any other location. Children also receive a ticket for each verse they memorize and can redeem their tickets at the Truth Tracker store for fun prizes. Throughout the year children can participate in our theme nights by dressing up in a costume. Prizes are awarded for the best costumes, judged by the Truth Tracker leaders.
